Designing Design Education Vol. 2.

30 Impulses

Eds. von Christoph Böninger, Annette Diefenthaler, Karenina Schröder and René Spitz for the iF Design Foundation

- What it takes to create change in education
- 30 practical suggestions as well as additional material to go deeper

How can design studies be made more practical? How can e.g. innovation, creativity, sustainability or resilience become an everyday part of training events? In 2021, the iF Design Foundation published its white book on the future of design education on the basis of international research. The key conclusion was: design studies must change radically in order to master the challenges of the future. This was followed by a three-year cooperation with Neue Sammlung Munich that provided concrete impulses.

The iF Design Foundation is dedicated as a non-profit organisation to design as a phenomenon and practice in the context of education and culture, science and the economy, politics and society. It promotes the development of design-specific discourses and supports the sharing of design-relevant knowledge and findings.
